

James McClung

Visual Artist

James McClung is a self-taught artist residing in Redlands California. Seeking inspiration from his life and travels, James' original art features an array of thought-provoking visuals, such as those found in the landscapes of Joshua Tree, the Central Valley of California, the solitudes of New Mexico, and the streets of Amsterdam and Stockholm.

Select Commissions

2017 Stereo Skateboards

Original artwork was created for skateboard designs using images that reflect each of the professional skateboarders/owners of Stereo Skateboards—Jason Lee and Chris Pastras.

2013. Parliament Chocolate

Original artwork was created to represent the origin of the cocoa bean used in the creation of each chocolate bar sold at Parliament Chocolate.

Selected Exhibitions

2018 Solo Exhibition, *Low Land

Preacher Gallery, Austin, TX.

2018 Two-Person Exhibition w/ Kyp Malone

Kate Oh Gallery, New York, NY.

2017 Group Exhibition, *All In One

Kate Oh Gallery, New York, NY.

2017 Solo Exhibition, *Been Going Around

Civil Coffee, Los Angeles CA

2016 Two-Person Exhibition, *There To Here

Augies Coffee Roasters, Redlands CA

2015 Solo Exhibition, *Land And Dark

Four Barrel, San Francisco CA

2012 Solo Exhibition, *One

Crafton Hills College Art gallery, Yucaipa CA

Bibliography

Fernandez, B. (2018, February 25). James McClung. Retrieved from <http://www.duanefernandez.com>

The Guild. (2016, March 10). Creative Spotlight: James McClung. Retrieved from <http://ieguild.org>

Valdovino, Jaime. (2015 January 1). The Unexpected Culinary Artist: James McClung. Retrieved from <http://www.lifeandthyme.com>